THE PRAYING DISCIPLES

Prayer is at the heart of the Christian life, yet too often we allow the days to slip by without ever turning to God in prayer. On the day of his ascension, the Lord Jesus issued his final, and perhaps strongest, mandate to the disciples. They were to go out into the world, baptizing people and telling of the commands of the Lord. Rather than jumping right to the task, the disciples gathered with others in prayer. They had learned from the words and deeds of the Master that in order to do God's work, they had to nurture their relationship with God through prayer. We have heard Gospel accounts of Jesus retreating into a faraway place in order to spend time in prayer. The night before he died, knowing all to which he was about to be subjected, Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray with his disciples. Now his disciples, in the days leading up to Pentecost, follow the way of the Master by spending time in prayer.

You are consecrated in truth.

OUR CALL TO PRAYER

Perhaps God is calling us to take a serious look at our own prayer lives today. A friend of mine who recently stopped smoking told me that it was because of prayer that he was able to become free of his nicotine addiction. He said that when he really needed help he simply started talking to God, out loud. While driving to work, he would ask God for help. He said that drivers stopped in traffic next to him would give him strange looks, but that didn't matter. He needed God's help and his approach was quite simple. In order to do the work of helping to build God's kingdom here on earth, we must turn to God in prayer for strength. Let us be inspired by the disciples, Mary the Mother of God, as well as the other women and men who gathered in the upper room, awaiting the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

mundo, bautizando a las personas y transmitiendo los mandamientos del Señor. En vez de poner manos a la obra inmediatamente, los discípulos se reunieron con otros para rezar. Por medio de las palabras y acciones del Maestro habían aprendido que para poder llevar a cabo la obra de Dios, debían nutrir su relación con Dios mediante la oración. Hemos escuchado pasajes del evangelio que relatan cómo Jesús se retiró a un lugar remoto para dedicarse a la oración. La noche antes de morir, sabiendo todo lo que iba a sufrir, Jesús fue al huerto de Getsemaní para rezar con sus discípulos. Ahora sus discípulos, en los días previos a Pentecostés, siguen el ejemplo del Maestro y pasan tiempo en oración.

LOS DISCÍPULOS QUE REZAN

La oración es parte central de la vida cristiana, sin embargo, muchas veces dejamos que pasen los días sin siquiera acudir a Dios en una oración. En el primer día de su Ascensión, el Señor Jesús dio su última, y quizás su más importante instrucción, a los discípulos. Debían recorrer el

EL LLAMADO A LA ORACIÓN

Tal vez Dios nos está llamando hoy para que examinemos seriamente nuestra vida de oración. Un amigo mío, que dejó de fumar hace poco, me dijo que pudo liberarse de su adicción a la nicotina gracias a la oración. Dijo que cuando realmente necesitaba ayuda, simplemente hablaba con Dios en voz alta. Mientras manejaba hacia el trabajo le pedía ayuda a Dios. Dijo que muchos de los conductores cerca de él, que debían parar por el tráfico, lo miraban de forma extraña pero eso no le importaba. Él necesitaba la ayuda de Dios y su método era sencillo. Para ayudar a construir el reino de Dios aquí en la tierra debemos acudir a Dios con la oración para que nos dé fuerzas. Que nos inspiren los discípulos, María, la Madre de Dios y los otros hombres y mujeres que se reunieron en el aposento alto para esperar la venida del Espíritu Santo.
