God Looks Into the Heart

I had a faith-sharing session with the Soldiers for Christ recently at the rectory. There were 18 in the gathering which is not bad considering that it started with five members.

We read and reflected on the first reading of last Sunday (I Samuel 16, 1-13). It is the beautiful story of the prophet Samuel being sent by God to Jesse to select from his sons the new king of Israel who would replace Saul. Saul has been disobedient and God has had enough of him. Eliab was the first to be presented and immediately Samuel was taken up with him because of his appearance and lofty bearing. However, God did not approve telling Samuel, "Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart," verse 7b. So Eliab was rejected as well as the six other brothers who were presented to Samuel. When Samuel asked Jesse if he has other sons, Jesse replied that indeed he has one more, the youngest who was left in the fields to tend the sheep. He was summoned and upon sight, it was evident that God had chosen him. David went on to rule Israel as a just and wise king. It is from him that Jesus traces His ancestry. All because when God chose, He looks into the heart.

I told the youngsters to have a good heart, one that is generous, kind and forgiving. For that is what matters most, not their appearance. I then asked if they have had experiences of being badly judged and would they would care to share them to the group. They gladly complied. Cesar spoke of going to a store and asked to remove his backpack while all others who had similar bags freely walked in and out. He asked whether because he is a youth that he is suspected of shoplifting. Angie shared her story of being eyed suspiciously when she goes to the adoration chapel with a bible in hand. She asked, "Is it unthinkable of them to see a girl like me carrying a bible and going to the chapel to pray?" Yes, she carried her bible with her wherever she goes. She actually located the key verse using her bible. Then there is Antonio, 17 years old, who wears baggy pants, metal links and often-times mistaken for being in a gang.

Some others shared painful and sad stories of being treated with mistrust and suspicion just because of their youth and their appearances. It was a deep level of sharing and I was truly struck at their honesty and trust. These kids are trying to find their path in life but it's not easy because it's a jungle out there. They need appreciation and encouragement. They have basically good hearts. Their message to the adults is: trust and support us.

Dios mira hacia el Corazón

Tuve una sesión para compartir la fe con los Soldados de Cristo recientemente en la rectoría. Hubo 18 en la reunión que no está mal teniendo en cuenta que empezó con cinco miembros.

Leímos y reflexionamos sobre la primera lectura del Domingo pasado (I Samuel 16, 1-13). Es la hermosa historia del profeta Samuel enviado por Dios a Jesse para seleccionar entre sus hijos el nuevo rey de Israel, que sustituirá a Saúl. Saúl ha sido desobediente y Dios ha tenido suficiente con él. Eliab era el primero que se presentó y de inmediato Samuel fue llevado con él a causa de su aspecto. Sin embargo, Dios no estaba de acuerdo con Samuel y le dice, "No como el hombre ve es que Dios ve, porque el hombre mira las apariencias, pero el Señor mira el corazón", verso 7b. Así Eliab fue rechazada, así como los seis hermanos que fueron presentados a Samuel. Cuando Samuel le preguntó a Jesse si tenía otros hijos, Jesse respondió que, efectivamente, tiene uno más, el más joven que dejó en los campos a cuidar las ovejas. Fue convocado y en la vista, era evidente que Dios lo había elegido. David pasó a gobernar a Israel como un rey justo y sabio. Es a partir de sus huellas que Jesús ascendencia. Todo porque cuando Dios escoge, él mira el corazón.

Les dije a los jóvenes que tengan un buen corazón, que es generoso, amable y que perdone. Porque eso es lo que más importa, no su apariencia. Entonces les pregunté si habían tenido experiencias de ser mal juzgados y si querían compartir con el grupo. Se cumplió con mucho gusto. César habló de ir a una tienda y le pidieron que se quitara la mochila, mientras todos los demás que tenían bolsas similares libremente entraban y salían. Pregunta que si porque es joven sospechan que robo. Angie compartió su historia de ser mirada con recelo cuando va a la capilla de adoración con una biblia en la mano. Ella preguntó: "¿Es impensable el ver una chica como llevando una biblia e ir a la capilla a rezar?" Sí, lleva su Biblia con ella donde quiera que vaya. Ella en realidad se encuentra el versículo clave con su biblia. Luego está Antonio, de 17 años, que viste pantalones anchos, eslabones de metal y muchas veces confundido por estar en una pandilla.

Algunos otros compartieron historias dolorosas y tristes de ser tratados con desconfianza y sospecha sólo por su juventud y su apariencia. Fue un profundo nivel de intercambio y me ha sorprendido realmente en su honestidad y confianza. Estos niños están tratando de encontrar su camino en la vida, pero no es fácil porque es una jungla allá afuera. Ellos necesitan reconocimiento y estímulo. Tienen corazones básicamente buenos. Su mensaje a los adultos es: confianza y el apoyo de nosotros.

En uno de sus últimos comunicados, el Papa Juan Pablo II saluda a los peregrinos jóvenes a Roma, con las siguientes palabras. Que sus palabras nos guíen de la misma manera y nos de comodidad en nuestro peregrinaje por la vida.

"Hoy yo les digo: Continúen incansablemente en su viaje en el cual usted se ha puesto en orden de ser testigos en todos lados de la gloriosa Cruz de Cristo. ¡No tengan miedo! Que la alegría del Señor, crucificado y resucitado, sea su fuerza, y que María Santísima siempre este con usted".
