We Remember, We Celebrate, We Believe

This year marks the parish centennial. One hundred years ago, St. Bruno Church, after serving for four years as a mission of St. Catherine Church of Burlingame, became a separate parish in 1912. The celebration of this historic event will be on October 5, 6 & 7. That's 146 days away!

The theme of the celebration is: "We Remember, We Celebrate, We Believe". It is adapted from a well-known Good Friday hymn. We remember with gratitude those who have been before us, especially the pioneers who started St. Bruno Church. We celebrate with joy for we are united despite our diversity; we experience God's presence, especially in the Eucharist, despite our meanness, at times, and; we are resilient despite many setbacks. Because of these we look at the future with optimism. We believe with certitude.

There will be a Centennial Dinner and Awards Night on October 5, Friday, at South San Francisco Convention Center. In an elegant and formal setting, we will toast to one another's good health and extend symbols of appreciation to parishioners who have made distinctive contributions to the parish. Tickets for the event are available with Ofelia Madriaga.

Archbishop John Quinn will preside at the Centennial Mass on October 6. This will be followed by the Coronation Ball. As was done in the past, we invite teen-age girls to participate and vie for the honor to be crowned as the Queen of the Centennial Year. The Show on October 7 will highlight the different ethnic communities, their origin and participation. There will be raffle, food sales, souvenir items and much more.

Yes, we will have a souvenir program. If you want to place a greeting, kindly contact Thelma Tannis. Also, we will update the parish photo directory. We had one at the 50th anniversary of the church but not many families participated. We plan to have all registered parishioners as well as all communities included in the photo directory. Art Sanchez, Ricardo Castillo and Meds Amoyen are in charge. If you want to do food sales, kindly contact Connie Munoz.

To realize these plans and more, two committees have been formed, namely: the Centennial Committee and the Festival Committee. The Centennial Committee chaired by Pamela Rojas is responsible for all activities that pertain with the past. The Festival Committee headed by Taufui Piutau. We invite everyone to lend a hand. Call any of the names mentioned here and share your time and energy for a successful Centennial celebration.

Congratulations to all our newly confirmed students and first communicants! Next Sunday, there will be a Tongan Cultural Mass at 3PM. You are all invited to experience this unique mass celebrated in Tongan and incorporating ethnic rituals.

Nosotros recordamos, celebramos, creemos

Este año se cumple el centenario de la parroquia. Hace cien años, la Iglesia de San Bruno, después de servir durante cuatro años como una misión de Santa Catalina, Iglesia de Burlingame, se convirtió en parroquia independiente en 1912. La celebración de este evento histórico será el 5 6 y 7 de Octubre. A 146 días!

El tema de la celebración es: "Nosotros recordamos, celebramos, creemos". Es una adaptación de un himno de Viernes Santo. Recordamos con gratitud a aquellos que han estado antes que nosotros, especialmente los pioneros que iniciaron la Iglesia de San Bruno. Celebramos con alegría porque estamos unidos a pesar de nuestra diversidad; experimentamos la presencia de Dios, especialmente en la Eucaristía, a pesar de nuestra mezquindad, y, que son resistentes a pesar de muchos contratiempos. Debido a estas miramos el futuro con optimismo. Creemos con certeza.

Habrà una cena del Centenario y reconocimientos el Viernes 5 de Octubre, en South San Francisco Convention Center. En un ambiente elegante y formal, para brindar el uno al otro por nuestra buena salud y agradecer a los feligreses que han hecho contribuciones destacadas a la parroquia. Los boletos para el evento están disponibles con Ofelia Madriaga.

El arzobispo John Quinn presidirá la misa del Centenario del 6 de Octubre. Esto será seguido por la Coronación. Tal como se hizo en el pasado, invitamos a chicas adolescentes para participar y competir para ser coronada como la Reina del Centenario. El Show del 7 de Octubre destacara las diferentes comunidades étnicas, su origen y la participación. Habrá rifas, ventas de comida, artículos de recuerdo y mucho más.

Sí, vamos a tener un programa de recuerdos. Si desea colocar un saludo, por favor póngase en contacto con Thelma Tannis. Además, vamos a actualizar el directorio de fotos. Tuvimos uno en el 50 aniversario de la iglesia, pero no todas las familias participaron. Queremos que todos los feligreses registrados, así como a todas las comunidades sean incluidos en el directorio de fotos. Arte Sánchez, Ricardo Castillo, y Meds Amoyen están encargados. Si usted vender comida por favor póngase en contacto con Connie Muñoz.

Para hacer realidad estos planes y mucho más, dos comités han sido formados: el Comité del Centenario y el Comité del Festival. El Comité del Centenario, presidido por Pamela Rojas es responsable de todas las actividades que corresponden con el pasado. El Comité del Festival dirigida por Taufui Piutau se encargará de supervisar todas las obras propias de la celebración. Invitamos a todos a echar una mano. Llame a cualquiera de los nombres mencionados aquí y comparta su tiempo y energía para la celebración del Centenario sea todo un éxito.

Felicitaciones a todos nuestros estudiantes recién confirmados y los que recibieron la primera comunión. El próximo Domingo, habrá una misa de Tongana a las 3pm. Están todos invitados a experimentar esta misa única celebrada en Tonga y la incorporación de rituales étnicos.

PERPETUAL ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT (24/7)

ADORACION PERPETUA AL SANTISIMO SACRAMENTO (24/7)

Long Time Parishioners

Mary Harmon came to St. Bruno Church in 1950. She had been married two years at that time and already had her first son, Richard. Her second son, Paul, who was born after the move to San Bruno, lives close to her now in Redding, and takes excellent care of her. Mary remembers vividly the original church, which was like one of the original mission churches in architectural style, but on a smaller scale. Mary was a member of the choir and remembers vividly Father Doyle, who died the day of the opening of the current church building (see History Corner). We miss Mary and she misses us, but she constantly prays for St. Bruno's and all of the parishioners. She needed to move nearer to her son due to health problems last year. We miss Mary Harmon, and we honor her as a long time faithful parishioner.

Stewardship by the Book

Jesus' commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary. What gifts of myself— my skills and talents, my time and resources— will best demonstrate my love.

History Corner

Did you know the history of the bell that is on San Bruno Avenue to the left of the entrance to the Adoration Chapel? The church bell, cast in 1886 by the W.T. Garratt & Co. San Francisco, was erected in the belfry of the original church. It was rung every Sunday one half hour before Mass and again at the beginning of Mass. Pioneers say it could be heard all over San Bruno. This ritual was followed until the mid forties; then was only rung on special occasions. Rev. Peter E. Doyle, who was pastor for 27 years, died on December 24th, 1959. This was the day of the first Mass at the current church building. The church bell was rung in the original church building for the last time at his funeral Mass. We now ring it again on special occasions.
