REFLECTIONS/ REFLECCIONES

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Some things about human nature don't change, even over the course of centuries. When we celebrate a holiday, we have a meal; when we celebrate a significant event, we have a feast. In today's first reading, Lady Wisdom is setting a feast, a sign of celebrating the covenant that Israel has with God. Israel's central remembrance of its saving Exodus covenant is the Passover meal. So it is natural--and not coincidental--that the Christian celebration of the new covenant sealed by the blood of Christ on the cross happens at a meal, our Eucharist, offered first by Jesus in the context of Passover remembrance. It is easy for us, sometimes, to forget the very long and rich religious and human origins of our eucharistic feasting on the bread and cup that are the Body and Blood of Jesus. Today, and for the next few Sundays that we hear the "Bread of Life" discourse from John, let us bring to mind the loving covenant that God makes with us, and be filled with great joy at this marvelous feast we have come to attend!

EATING AND DRINKING THE BODY AND BLOOD

The acts of eating and drinking are some of the most potent and important acts of our human existence. The forces of hunger and thirst are among the most compelling drives we know in our bodily quest to stay alive and, even in this day of "meal-in-a-shake" we cannot sustain our bodies without the visceral actions of engaging food and drink in biting, chewing or--at the very least--swallowing. When Jesus' audience today heard him say one had to eat his flesh and drink his blood, they did so with a very literal understanding of eating and drinking, which naturally led them to some gruesome images. Indeed, this passage has been problematic for many who are not Christian, even for some Christians who do not bring the deep experience of Christ present in the elements of bread and wine. Jesus compels his listeners, and especially his followers, to a deeper understanding of how he is truly speaking of the very real and intimate mystical union that they are called to have with him in the elements of the eucharistic meal.

EATING, DRINKING AS CHRIST'S BODY AND BLOOD

When we eat and drink the eucharistic elements, we bring a deeper understanding to the action, knowing that we are consuming the very Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. But, as we might caution the listeners in John's Gospel today not to stop short at a literal understanding, we would do well to caution ourselves not to stop short with a merely individual or selfish understanding of our reception of Christ in the Eucharist. The presence of Christ in the Eucharist that we consume becomes one with us; we consume his flesh and blood, which become one with our flesh and blood. We, baptized into the Body of Christ, as Augustine says, eat and drink what we already are. But we are likewise compelled, as living signs of the covenant sealed by the body and blood of Christ on the cross, to be nourishing, refreshing, living signs of that sacrificial, self-giving love for others. Our lives must be driven by our hunger for Christ's Body and thirst for Christ's Blood, so the whole world may live.

Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Algunas cosas de la naturaleza humana no cambian, incluso en el transcurso de los siglos. Cuando celebramos una fiesta, tenemos una comida, cuando celebramos un acontecimiento importante, damos un banquete. En la primera lectura de hoy, La Sabiduría está preparando un banquete, un símbolo de la celebración de la alianza que Israel tiene con Dios. El recuerdo central de Israel de su alianza salvadora del Éxodo es la comida de Pascua. Por lo tanto, es natural y no casual que la celebración cristiana de la nueva alianza sellada con la sangre de Cristo en la cruz sea una comida, nuestra Eucaristía, ofrecida por primera vez por Jesús en el contexto de la Pascua. Es fácil para nosotros, a veces, a olvidar los orígenes religiosos y humano de nuestro banquete eucarístico de pan y vino que son el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús. Hoy en día, y para los próximos domingos que escuchamos el "Pan de Vida" del discurso de Juan, que nos traen a la mente la generosa alianza que Dios hace con nosotros, y se llenó de gran alegría en esta fiesta maravillosa que hemos llegado a asistir

COMER Y BEBER EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE

Comer y beber están entre los actos más potentes e importantes de nuestra existencia. Las fuerzas del hambre y la sed están entre los impulsos más fuertes del cuerpo para mantenerse vivo. Incluso en esta época de "comida-en-una-batida" no podemos sostener nuestros cuerpos sin las acciones de morder, masticar o por lo menos tragar. Cuando la audiencia de Jesús lo escuchó decir que uno debía comer su carne y beber su sangre, entendieron literalmente lo de comer y beber, que naturalmente los llevó a percibir algunas imágenes repugnantes. Este pasaje ha sido realmente problemático para muchos no cristianos, e incluso para algunos cristianos que ignoran la profunda experiencia de Cristo presente en los elementos del pan y el vino. Jesús lleva sus oyentes, y especialmente sus seguidores, a una comprensión más profunda de la unión real pero mística que estaban llamados a tener con Él en los elementos del banquete eucarístico.

COMER Y BEBER EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

Cuando comemos y bebemos los elementos eucarísticos, alcanzamos una comprensión más profunda de la acción, sabiendo que consumimos el verdadero Cuerpo y Sangre de Jesucristo. Pero, así como podríamos advertir a los que escuchan el Evangelio de Juan hoy evitar una interpretación literal, deberíamos nosotros mismos evitar quedarnos en una percepción meramente individual o egoísta de nuestra recepción de Cristo en la Eucaristía. La presencia de Cristo en la Eucaristía que recibimos se convierte en una con nosotros; comemos su carne y bebemos su sangre, que se hacen uno con nuestro cuerpo y nuestra sangre. Nosotros, bautizados en el Cuerpo de Cristo, como dice San Agustín, comemos y bebemos lo que ya somos. Pero de la misma manera estamos obligados, como signos vivientes de la Alianza sellada con el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo en la cruz, a ser signos nutritivos y confortantes de ese amor entregado para otros. Nuestras vidas deben ser impulsadas por nuestra hambre del Cuerpo de Cristo y nuestra sed por la Sangre de Cristo, para que el cuerpo entero pueda vivir.

Saint Bruno Parish / Iglesia de San Bruno

55 Days left for the Centennial Celebration

Long Time Parishioners

Félix and María-Elena Pérez began as parishioners in 1984. All three of their children, José-Félix, Ana-Maria and Ester-Lorena made their first communion and confirmation at Saint Bruno Church. They liked the parish because it was close and they had the Spanish Mass on Saturday. José-Félix was an altar boy from 1987 to 1994 at the 7 p.m. Spanish Mass. Félix had been active in All Souls Parish before he was married and had volunteered in the CCD program for over 20 years first as an aide and then as a teacher. He continued to do this with the Saint Bruno parish when his children were in the CCD program with his wife assisting him. Recently he has volunteered as a substitute teacher for the CCD program. In addition, both he and his wife were involved in the Christian Family Movement in the late 80's and early 90's. In December 1990, Father Burke asked them to do the Marriage Preparation Program in Spanish for the Hispanic couples of the parish. Since then, in their role as volunteers, they have prepared over 30 mainly Spanish-speaking couples and recently participated in the preparation of the 9 couple group for the mass wedding in June 2012. Currently they are working on systemizing the Marriage Preparation Program with the assistance of other couples. Félix was recently elected to the Parish Council, and serves as a Lector and Eucharistic Minister for the Spanish masses. Thank you, Félix and María-Elena for 28 plus years of service to St. Bruno Parish.

History Corner

Monsignor Bruno Peschiera was invited to Saint Bruno Parish to assist Father Rene Gomez with the 4:30 p.m. Saturday mass and the 8 a.m. Sunday mass at the time when we were very short-handed for priests. He also heard confessions and cared for the youth and their needs. It was during Monsignor Bruno's time at Saint Bruno's that the then Father Bruno was awarded the honorable title of Monsignor. Those who served at mass with Monsignor Bruno remember him as being very strict but fair. He would ask questions about the readings and the homily of all who served as Lector or Extraordinary Minister and also of the altar servers to make sure that everyone paid attention during mass. He would also not allow anyone who arrived late to serve. Those of us who served with him learned to respect him, and to understand and embrace his dedication to the solemnity of the Holy Eucharist. For 30 years Monsignor Bruno has taken care of Italian immigrants and visitors, as well as the religious hierarchy of Italy (cardinals, bishops, and priests) at his Oratory known as the Italian American Center in Pacifica. He has been there for thirty years. Monsignor Bruno served at Saint Bruno's for three years. We appreciate and honor Monsignor Bruno Peschiera for his service to our parish.
