Third Sunday of Advent

Today, the Third Sunday of Advent, is traditionally referred to as Gaudete Sunday. This is the Advent Sunday of joy. Today's first reading, responsorial psalm, and second reading call us to express joy in three ways. We are summoned to "shout for joy," to "cry out with joy," and to "rejoice in the Lord always." Expressing Christian joy is quite distinct from the kind of joy we express, for instance, when our favorite sports team wins an important game. That kind of joy is fleeting. Christian joy is an inner peace and spiritual happiness that is developed throughout our lives and sustains us even when we struggle. It is the kind of joy that is infectious. Others can tell that there is simply something different about us. Let us rejoice this day, for to us shall come Emmanuel.

JOYFUL NEWS

I remember it as if it were yesterday. Our entire family was gathered in a Boston restaurant to celebrate my sister's thirtieth birthday. It was a fun-filled gathering for our large family. I was seated next to my mother and father. After we finished our appetizers, my sister and her husband walked to the head of the table. We all expected my brother-in-law to lead us in a toast to my sister. Instead my sister announced that she was going to have a baby. This announcement signaled the fact that the next generation in our family was about to begin. After our initial expressions of congratulations and joy, I glanced at my parents, who had reached across the table, held hands, and simply looked into each other's eyes. The satisfaction and pride that was shared in that glance is still clearly marked in my memory. There was a clarity to what they shared that can hardly be described. As I ponder today's scriptures, I believe that what they shared was sheer joy.

CULTIVATING CHRISTIAN JOY

In a world seemingly filled with so much doom and gloom, how does the Christian cultivate the kind of inner joy that my parents shared on that wonderful night? We need look no further than today's Gospel to find the answer. John summons the crowds to share their food and clothing with those who are in need. When the Christian begins to think of others first, things change. Selfishness can be replaced by selflessness. Bitterness can be replaced by optimism. Doom and gloom can be replaced by Christian joy. Advent, this time of rejoicing at the coming of the Lord, is a wonderful time to ask ourselves whether or not we are people imbued with Christian joy. As we eagerly await the day when we will sing the words "Joy to the world, the Lord is come," let us pray that we will be filled with Christian joy and gladness.

Tercer Domingo de Adviento

Hoy, tercer domingo de Adviento, que tradicionalmente se conoce como Domingo de Gaudete. Éste es el Domingo de Adviento de la alegría. Primera lectura de hoy, salmo responsorial y la segunda lectura nos llaman a expresar la alegría de tres maneras. Estamos llamados a "gritar de alegría", a "gritar con alegría" y "Regocijaos en el Señor siempre." Expresar la alegría cristiana es muy distinta de la clase de alegría que expresan, por ejemplo, cuando nuestro equipo favorito gana un partido importante. Ese tipo de alegría es efímera. Alegría cristiana es una paz interior y la felicidad espiritual que se desarrolla a lo largo de nuestra vida y nos sostiene incluso cuando luchamos. Es la clase de alegría que es contagiosa. Otros pueden decir que no es simplemente algo diferente en nosotros. Alegrémonos hoy, para que nos venga Emmanuel.

NOTICIAS ALEGRES

Lo recuerdo como si fuera ayer. Toda nuestra familia estaba reunida en un restaurante de Boston para celebrar que mi hermana cumplía treinta. Era una reunión muy divertida para nuestra gran familia. Estaba sentado al lado de mi madre y de mi padre. Luego de que terminamos nuestros los, mi hermana y su esposo caminaron hacia la cabecera de la mesa. Todos esperábamos que mi cuñado nos guiara en un brindis por mi hermana. En vez, mi hermana anunció que iba a tener un bebé. Este anuncio señaló el hecho de que la siguiente generación de nuestra familia estaba por comenzar. Luego de nuestras felicitaciones y nuestra alegría inicial, miré a mis padres que se habían estirado para sujetarse de las manos y simplemente se miraban a los ojos. La satisfacción y el orgullo que se compartía en esa mirada sigue grabado en mi memoria. Estaba tan claro lo que compartían que casi no se lo puede describir. Mientras reflexiono sobre las Escrituras de hoy, creo que lo que compartían era alegría pura.

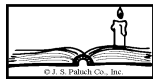

CULTIVANDO LA ALEGRÍA CRISTIANA

En un mundo aparentemente lleno de pesimismo, ¿cómo cultiva el cristiano el tipo de alegría interna que mis padres compartieron esa maravillosa noche? No debemos buscar más allá que en el Evangelio de hoy para hallar la respuesta. Juan le pide a la multitud que comparta su comida y su ropa con los necesitados. Cuando el cristiano comienza a pensar primero en los demás, las cosas cambian. El egoísmo puede ser reemplazado por el desinterés. El resentimiento puede ser reemplazado por el optimismo. El pesimismo puede ser reemplazado por la alegría cristiana. El Adviento, este tiempo de regocijo ante la venida del Señor, es un tiempo maravilloso para preguntarnos a nosotros mismos si somos o no personas imbuídas de alegría cristiana. Mientras esperamos con ansias el día en que cantemos las palabras "Gozo al mundo, el Señor ha venido", roguemos estar llenos de gozo y alegría cristiana.

About Advent Wreaths

Traditionally, Advent wreaths are constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which four candles are inserted, representing the four weeks of Advent. Ideally, three candles are purple and one is rose, but white candles can also be used.

The purple candles in particular symbolize the prayer, penance, and preparatory sacrifices and goods works undertaken at this time. The rose candle is lit on the third Sunday, Gaudete Sunday, when the priest also wears rose vestments at Mass; Gaudete Sunday is the Sunday of rejoicing, because the faithful have arrived at the midpoint of Advent, when their preparation is now half over and they are close to Christmas.

The progressive lighting of the candles symbolizes the expectation and hope surrounding our Lord's first coming into the world and the anticipation of his second coming to judge the living and the dead.

Acerca de las coronas de adviento

Tradicionalmente, las coronas de Adviento se construyen de un círculo de ramas de hoja perenne en la que se insertan cuatro velas, en representación de las cuatro semanas de Adviento. Idealmente, tres velas son de color púrpura y una rosa es, pero velas blancas también se puede utilizar.

Las velas moradas simbolizan, en particular, la oración, la penitencia y sacrificios preparatorios y los bienes que deban realizarse en este momento. La vela rosa se enciende en el tercer domingo Gaudete domingo, cuando el sacerdote se levantó también lleva vestiduras en la Misa; Gaudete domingo es el domingo de regocijo, porque los fieles han llegado al punto medio del Adviento, cuando su preparación es ahora más de la mitad y que están cerca de la Navidad.

La iluminación progresiva de las velas simboliza la esperanza y la esperanza que rodea nuestra primera venida del Señor en el mundo y la previsión de su segunda venida para juzgar a los vivos y a los muertos.
