REFLECTIONS/ REFLECCIONES

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life.

The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share--within our families, parish families, and the wider human family--the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time.

HOLY FAMILIES

In our day and age it is not easy to maintain healthy family relationships. Our culture often works against us. The Christmas season, especially, magnifies the differences between the values that we Catholic Christians hold and the values of the ordinary world. Christmas can also exacerbate tensions within our families. Sometimes we may want to run away and hide!

The feast of the Holy Family gives us much-needed encouragement. The readings from Sirach and Colossians show us the holy significance of the day-to-day decisions and behavior in our everyday family lives. The Gospel story shows Joseph following divine guidance as he responded to different challenges--first fleeing to Egypt to keep Jesus safe, and then moving to Nazareth in Galilee to raise Jesus in the midst of the Jewish faith and culture. How can we follow Joseph's lead and let God guide our families in holiness?

"PUT ON LOVE"

Paul's letter to the Colossians provides us with a key insight. The end of today's selection contains some advice from the "household codes" of the pagan philosophers of Paul's day, but this advice is not the focus of Paul's words. Paul's main focus is on our baptism into Christ, when each of us "put on love" (Colossians 3:14). The divine love that was made flesh in Jesus and fills each of us in baptism is so all-embracing that it can transform every aspect of our lives--from the most mundane family relationships to our most spiritual relationship with God--into something holy in God's eyes. This feast reminds us that in Christ, the divine and the human, the ordinary and the holy, were forever linked. When we "put on" the divine love that was poured out on us in baptism, we will nurture holiness in all our relationships--in our families, faith communities, and the wider human family.

La Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José

Este domingo es la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, que viene en el primer domingo después del día de Navidad. La fiesta de hoy celebra la forma en la humanidad de Jesús (incluida toda su vida familiar) ha traído significado salvífico en los ritmos cotidianos de nuestra vida de familia humana.

Las Escrituras ofrecen instrucción y aliento sobre cómo compartir - dentro de nuestras familias, las familias de la parroquia, y la familia humana más amplia - el amor que Dios comparte con nosotros en Jesús. Selecciones del Eclesiástico, el Salmo 128, y Colosenses nos animan a reflejar el amor divino y así encontrar la santidad en todas nuestras relaciones humanas. La lectura del Evangelio de Mateo ofrece un ejemplo vivo de amor en las acciones de José tomó para proteger a su joven familia de los peligros y consolidarlos dentro de la gran familia de la fe de su tiempo.

SAGRADAS FAMILIAS

Hoy en día, no es fácil mantener relaciones familiares saludables. A menudo nuestra cultura funciona en contra nuestro. El tiempo de Navidad, especialmente, aumenta las diferencias entre los valores que tenemos los católicos y los valores del mundo común. La Navidad también puede agravar las tensiones dentro de nuestras familias. ¡A veces puede que queramos escaparnos y escondernos!

La Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia nos da el tan necesitado aliento. Las lecturas de Sirácide y colosenses nos muestran el significado sagrado de las decisiones y comportamiento cotidianos en nuestra vida familiar de todos los días. La historia del Evangelio muestra a José que sigue el consejo divino al responder a los diferentes retos: primero huir a Egipto para mantener a Jesús a salvo, y luego trasladarse a Nazaret de Galilea para criar a Jesús en medio de la fe y cultura judía. ¿Cómo podemos seguir el ejemplo de José y permitir a Dios guiar a nuestras familias en la santidad?

"TENGAN AMOR"

La carta de San Pablo a los colosenses nos proporciona un entendimiento clave. El final de la selección de hoy contiene algunos consejos de los "códigos de familia" de los filósofos paganos del tiempo de san Pablo, pero sus palabras no se centran en estos consejos. El enfoque principal de san Pablo es en nuestro bautismo en Cristo, cuando cada uno de nosotros "tiene amor" (Col 3:14). El amor divino que se hizo carne en Jesús y que llena a cada uno de nosotros en el bautismo es tan completo que puede transformar cada aspecto de nuestra vida, desde las relaciones familiares más mundanas a nuestra relación más espiritual con Dios, en algo sagrado a los ojos de Dios.

Esta fiesta nos recuerda que en Cristo, lo divino y lo humano, lo común y lo sagrado, se unieron para siempre. Cuando "tenemos" el amor divino que fue derramado sobre nosotros en el Bautismo, cultivaremos la santidad en todas nuestras relaciones: en nuestras familias, comunidades de fe y toda la familia humana.

beginning of another one, let us be grateful and spread God's mercy and love among one another, as we unite in the celebration of a New Year.

May you all have a blessed and Happy New Year 2014.

A small prayer to start our year...

SERENITY PRAYER

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

R. Amen. —St. Francis of Assisi

January 11, 2014 National Human Trafficking Awareness Day

Human trafficking is "modern day slavery" because it uses force, fraud or coercion to make people do things they don't want to do. Women, children and men are all affected by this crime. They are enslaved throughout the world through forced labor and/or commercial sex. Many times they are right in our own communities.

If you are aware of a situation in which someone is being coerced to work against their will for the benefit of others, please call the U.S. Department of Justice Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-428-7581 or report your concerns to the:

National Human Trafficking Resource Center's 24/7
Hotline at 1-888-3737-888.
